We're Loving: Glamourpuss NYC Fur Funnels & Foxy Mittens

Glamourpuss NYC

Designed by city starlet-fashionistas Gigi Mortimer and Courtney Moss, these Glamourpuss NYC warm, furry pieces add a serious punch to an otherwise humdrum winter wardrobe.

The Fur Funnel is a stretchy, rabbit fur collar in a rainbow of colors that pops over the head and wraps your chilly little neck in supreme softness - think the old Turtle Fur you lost every time you went skiing, but infused with a fashion twist for grown-up wear in the city and are available on Glamourpuss' online boutique and at Calypso. Then there's the Foxy Mittens, which you can tell just by looking at them, are little puffball mitts of winter goodness and warmth.

Who said that wearing ridiculously warm layers couldn't be adorably chic? (And yes, that's Real Housewife of New York City Kelly Bensimon modeling the goods.)
