and Gigi Mortimer (we look forward to featuring her as a Mover and Shaker) launched the hit of the season last night at Calypso on Madison Avenue: Glamourpuss NYC!

In this season of the World Series, we can assure you THIS was the home run in Manhattan, not only last night but for this whole season. Both fabulous ancients, Gigi is to the left and Courtney is on the right: they are both modeling the beautiful neck warmer funnel. Gigi's looked amazing with her black feather skirt and Courtney's matched her eyes and earrings!

We quote from their site:

Introducing Glamourpuss NYC, a focused collection of classic yet whimsical wardrobe essentials that take the boring out of basic and punch up your glamour quotient anytime, any place. Created with versatility in mind, Glamourpuss NYC is for the woman on the go who wants to look her best with ease, no matter where she is--the city, the country, the beach. The launch for fall/holiday 2009 season kicks off with two special pieces, a neck warmer funnel and a pair of mittens, that are not just functional—they are fabulous!

Fun, sophisticated and affordable, Glamourpuss NYC was conceived and designed by Courtney Moss and Gigi Mortimer, two fashion industry insiders, who wanted unexpected alternatives to boring basics and over-the-top luxury items.

Glamourpuss NYC will evolve seasonally and introduce unique pieces that are practical yet desirable with an international flair and appeal.

The neck warmer funnel was flying off the shelves and we noticed the camel and the gray colors were especially popular! Everyone needs some Glamourpuss NYC in their lives so be sure not to stall on filling your wardrobe with it!

Another of our fashion favorite must-have accessories are Jennifer Creel's sunglasses, available at Bergdorf Goodman featured by us previously:

We look forward to featuring Jennifer as a Mover and Shaker and good luck to her in the New York City Marathon!

We highly recommend checking out their site and buying your own at Calypso before they sell out!
